Programme in Project Management (PPM)
Presented by Graduate School of Technology Management, University of Pretoria

The undisputed leaders in project management education, training and research.

With the Programme in Project Management (PPM) you will be equipped with the necessary skills and tools to manage projects professionally. The skills taught are applied in individual assignments that are performed in the workplace. The PPM is a well-established programme that is currently in its 22nd year running, already having been presented more than 163 times. Thousands of delegates from a variety of industries and government organisations have successfully completed and benefited from the programme. The PPM is therefore well known in the industry. The PPM is applicable to projects in all sectors of business and government.

The PPM is, to a large extent, presented by the same lecturers that present Africa’s only Master’s Programme in Project Management that is accredited by the global accreditation centre, the Project Management Institute (PMI).
