

Railway Infrastructure Maintenance Management

Presented by the TFR Chair in Railway Engineering and the RSR Chair in Railway Safety in the Department of Civil Engineering, University of Pretoria

5 ECSA CPD Points

The Railway Infrastructure Maintenance Management short course will introduce you to the general principles of railway infrastructure maintenance and the management thereof, as applied to the fields of track, traction power supply, signalling and rail-bound telecommunications, as well as its integration into a multidisciplinary approach.

You will also gain specific exposure to the appropriateness of the design of particular railway systems in relation to prevailing and future business needs, as well as the development of lifecycle maintenance plans and the ability to adapt these to changing business circumstances.

This course is presented as part of the Railway Engineering Education Programme and as part of the Railway Occurrence Investigation Programme (ROIP) of the University of Pretoria.
